

CT “Classic” Tour:

Table Mountain - Bo-Kaap - Slave Lodge Museum - V&A Waterfront .

Table Mountain :Admire the beauty of Cape Town from the top of Table Mountain with an unforgettable cable car ride. Take a stroll around Devil’s Peak, and enjoy a part of the mountain most tourists forget about. Ample photo opportunities also on top of Signal Hill.

Bo-kaap: also called the “Cape Malay” area is a sight for sore eyes with the bright & colorful houses and scents of exotic herbs coming from the little restaurants and shops.

The Slave Lodge Museum : next to the garden offers the international visitor a better understanding of slavery, apartheid and oppression of the South African people throughout history.

V&A Waterfront: mix of spectacular views, world-class restaurants and shops and the buzz of the working harbor.
